He turned to another passage and compared the two, and brooded over the book late into the night. In the early darkness of a winter day, a traveler stood at the windswept crossing of two paths, "You won't find out. It's all lies, shams. Old men playing games with words. That night, over supper at the waterfront inn, she asked with unusual timidity in her voice, "Do I have great gifts?" There was a little noise, the soft clip-clop of the black mare's hooves, coming along the lane. Then Dragonfly came back to herself and called to Ivory and ran down the hill to meet him. "I will go," she said. Back in the winter she had sent to him night after night. She had learned her mother's spell of "Avert!" Irian blurted out, making the sign to prevent word from becoming deed. Then the great fleet turned west, heading for the one harbor of Roke Island, the Bay of Thwil. Early knew of the harbor from the maps in Havnor, and knew there was a high hill above it.
