So he turned Morred's people against him. Crying out that their king had betrayed them, the villagers of Enlad destroyed their own cities and fields; sailors sank their ships; and his soldiers, obeying the Enemy's spells, fought one another in bloody and ruinous battles..he thought so, since beyond the grove he could see treeless heaths and pastures.. Striding along—he could stride, then—with the seawind pushing at him always from the left and the early sunlight on the sea out past the shadow of the mountain, he thought of the Mages of Roke, the masters of the art magic, the professors of mystery and power.
