

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION WHAT EVERYONE NEEDS TO KNOW (R)

They walked a half-mile or so. The Knoll rose up full in the western sun on their right. Behind them the School sprawled grey and many-roofed on its lower hill. The grove of trees towered before them now. She saw oak and willow, chestnut and ash, and tall evergreens. From the dense, sun-shot darkness of the trees a stream ran out, green-banked, with many brown trodden places where cattle and sheep went down to drink or to cross over. They had come through the stile from a pasture where fifty or sixty sheep grazed the short, bright turf, and now stood near the stream. That house," said the mage, pointing to a low, moss-ridden roof half-hidden by the afternoon shadows of the trees. "Stay tonight. You will?" "Failed? Sent away? Ran away?" The Namer nodded..violence. Everyone gets it "bettrizated" out of them in childhood. And that's just the beginning. . .out of the earth and the metal refined. As always, Gelluk's mind leapt across obstacles and delays..accustomed to the dark, was able to discern, from it, the huge outlines of the surrounding.ends." "It's up to me too if he stays or goes, and he goes. You haven't got all the sayso. All the people.crowned king. There is real work to do," the Summoner said, and his voice too was like stone, cold.Gelluk was standing still, but his shaking hands were clenched, his whole tall body twitching and.Otter nodded..Quite early on, impatient with wooing her massive physical indifference, he had worked up a charm, a sorcerer's seduction-spell of which he was contemptuous even as he made it, though he knew it was effective. He cast it on her while she was, characteristically, mending a cow's halter. The result had not been the melting eagerness it had produced in girls he had used it on in Havnor and Thwil. Dragonfly had gradually become silent and sullen. She ceased asking her endless questions about Roke and did not answer when he spoke. When he very tentatively approached her, taking her hand, she struck him away with a blow to the head that left him dizzy. He saw her stand up and stride out of the stableyard without a word, the ugly hound she favoured trotting after her. It looked back at him with a grin..he had transformed brick into butterfly. She could not dance with him, she could not play with..only fear she had ever shown of anything. But she disliked the low, cramped cabin, and had stayed..was getting hot..It took him a long time to cross the cavern. He put his bad arm inside his shirt and kept his good hand pressed to his hip joint, which made it a little easier to walk. The walls narrowed gradually to a passage. Here the roof was much lower, just above his head. Water seeped down one wall and gathered in little pools among the rocks underfoot. It was not the marvelous red palace of Tinaral's vision, mystic silvery runes on high branching columns. It was only the earth, only dirt, rock, water. The air was cool and still. Away from the dripping of the stream it was silent. Outside the gleam of werelight it was dark..paned window looking out on the kitchen-gardens of the Great House - handsome, well-kept gardens,..shivering arms..wings, a butterfly. He put out his finger and the butterfly lighted on it. He shook his finger and..for a wizard, Heleth was silent as a stone about some things. The book convinced him that all of them were only shadows or hints of a greater mastery. As one true element controlled all substances, one true knowledge contained all others. Approaching ever closer to that mastery, he understood that the crafts of wizards were as crude and false as Losen's title and rule. When he was one with the true element, he would be the one true king. Alone among men he would speak the words of making and unmaking. He would have dragons for his dogs..Erreth-Akbe, half recovered, went after Orm, drove him from Havnor, and harried him on "through.with a blind ox," Dulse said..weatherworker who needed training at sea, and Sava, a woman of sixty who had come to Roke with him.warn the city. Destroy this hill? The trees there?" She looked down to a grove of trees not far from the hill. "Maybe Segoy who made them could unmake them. Maybe the earth will destroy herself. Maybe she'll destroy herself through our hands, in the end. But not through yours. False king, false dragon, false man, don't come to Roke Knoll until you know the ground you stand on."
