To give you an idea of the creativity of this young man, I have arranged for Zorphwar to be made. The man rose then, and Hinda marveled at the height of him, for he was as tall as the cottage door. I was so pleasantly pooped I completely forgot about Andrew Detweiler. Until Monday morning. "You're sure you want me to have this?" Barry asked, incredulous, with the white curlicue of the sticker dangling from his fingertip. I closed the door quietly behind me and walked around the end of the bed so I could see all of him. He was huddled on his back with his elbows propped up by the wall and the bed. His throat had been cut. The blood hadn't spread very far. Most of it had been soaked up by the threadbare carpet under the bed. I looked around the grubby little room but didn't find anything.
