

JESS WILLARD HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE WORLD (1915 1919)

"This is the center," said Veil. "We must keep to the center. And wait." island of Solea. Elfarran knew this, as she knew the moment of Morred's death. She bade her people of power from the kings to the priests. King Thoreg received him with honor, but Intathin the High. So he cherished his free hours as if they were actual meetings with her. He had always loved her, but had not understood that he loved her beyond anyone and anything. When he was with her, even when he was down on the docks thinking of her, he was alive. He never felt entirely alive in Master Hemlock's house and presence. He felt a little dead. Not dead, but a little dead.. "Oh, pretty man," said one of them with a smile, "don't even show us what you have in your pack there, for I haven't a penny of copper or ivory, nor seen one for a month."..and bellies touched, though their hands stayed down by their sides. They went on kissing..though the Otter's House was still in sunlight. Kurremkarmerruk sat on the bench with his back. Morred s Isle, they call it. But it's not Enlad of the Kings, nor Ea. It's south, not north of Havnor, they say. There they say the women of the Hand have kept the old arts. And they teach them, not keeping them secret each to himself, as the wizards do. When she did so, Alder's wife Tawny and several other people agreed with her that a squabble between sorcerers over work was nothing new and nothing to take on about. But San and his wife and the tavern crew wouldn't let it rest, it being the only thing of interest to talk about for the rest of the winter, except the cattle dying. "Besides," Tawny said, "my man's never averse to paying copper where he thought he might have to pay ivory." "Are the cattle he touched keeping afoot, then?" "So far as we can see, they are. And no new sickenings." "He's a true sorcerer, Tawny," Gift said, very earnest. "I know it." "That's the trouble, love," said Tawny. "And you know it! This is no place for a man like that. Whoever he is, is none of our business, but why did he come here, is what you have to ask." "To cure the beasts," Gift said..and his bubble level in it. And he wasn't altogether lying about the wind. Several times he had..he said, "My words are nothing. Hear the leaves." That was all he said that could be called..He turned and made for the shore, hasty, careless where he set his feet and not caring if he broke the silence by splashing and breathing hard. He slogged back up the path through the reeds till he reached dry ground and coarse grass, and heard the buzz of midges and crickets. He sat down then on the ground, rather hard, for his legs were shaking..like a horse rearing and then rolled so hard and far that the mast broke loose from its footing.. "Not for the same reasons as you," she said, "but I still want to. And we came all this way. And you know my name." "I learned it really quickly," Diamond said..did not know what to say. If he reached out..He told her, as well as he could. "We were strangers. Yet she gave me her name," he said. "And I gave her mine." He spoke haltingly, with long pauses. "It was I that walked with the wizard, compelled by him, but she was with me, and she was free. And so together we could turn his power against him, so that he destroyed himself." He thought for a long time, and said, "She gave me her power."..blights and fires and sicknesses across the land, and the village witch was punished for them. He was there. The willows had grown, these two years. There was only a little space to sit among the green shoots and the long, falling leaves..In her bed, in the dark, she lay and thought: He knew the wizard who named me. Or I said my name..that way you dip your head, so. And when you know there's ore underfoot, you stamp on the place..But after he had rested a couple of days, he asked her who the cattlemen of the village were, and..and restored him his strength.
