The technique has been tried on different animals. You begin with an unfertilized egg cell and treat it in such a way as to remove its nucleus, either by delicately cutting it out or by using some chemical process. In the place of the removed egg cell nucleus, you insert the nucleus of a somatic cell of the same (or, possibly, an allied) species, and then let nature take its course.. "Be quiet and help me," said the thin grey man, "or I shall put you in the trunk with my nearest and dearest." human nature is, what good and bad behavior consists of, what men ought to be, what women ought to be. Late in February he bought a house and an electronics dealership in a small town in the Adirondacks.. "So what about the crude?" Ralston asked. He didn't completely believe that part of the model they had evolved. He was a laboratory chemist, specializing in inorganic compounds. The way these plants produced plastics without high heat, through purely catalytic interactions, had him confused and defensive. He wished the crazy windmills would go away..
